

BUSINESS AT THE EXCHANGE

The auction sales at the Exchange yesterday were limited to official sales. No. 26 East Sixty-second-st., a four-story brick dwelling on a lot, 18x100, sold for $43,615 to the plaintiff in the proceeding. A six-story brick tenement on a lot, 25x75, in East Ninety-third-st., west of First-ave., was also offered under foreclosure; the plaintiff was the buyer at $15,511. A one-third undivided interest in Nos. 287 and 289 Avenue, and No. 438 and 440 East Eighteenth-st., two five-story brick dwellings on a plot, 25x75, was offered; the referee was asked to state the answer to the charges, but he declined to make any statement; after some slight bidding Charles H. Holden was the buyer.

The following private sales are reported: Hoffman Brothers have sold for Sonnenberg: Golding's northern corner of Wooster and Broome, 100 feet Broome and 75 feet on Wooster, a six-story building to Wm. C. Golding, a Broker, for $10,000.

The awarding of contracts offered by the alien associations and friends of Princeton College for the best set of entrance examination papers for admission to the college was made public yesterday. The highest price of $500 was paid by George W. Childs, was awarded to Frank Stetson Henderson (Young Henderson) of Princeton.
